A Foursquare Approach To Unfolding Your Divine Purpose In Divine Order

We were created to unfold our Divine purpose in Divine order. How do I know this? I have experienced the following principles unfold over the course of my life. The following affirmations are intended to open your awareness to the grace and blessings you already have in your life. Affirmations repeated mean nothing unless you feel their intention and emotionalize their intent. Repeat these mantras every day until you feel their essence. Once you internalize them, you will experience the results of their Divine power to allow Divine goodness to be an ongoing experience in your life. Be diligent with these mantras and feel your inner presence of spirit, the power of your emotional commitment, the knowledge of your accomplishment and the creativity of expecting your Divine desires. May God bless you on your path and open your awareness to the bounty of God's omniverse every day of your life!

The Foursquare Aspects of Living encompasses the physical, emotional, mental and spiritual qualities of our beings. Everything we say, feel, think and become aware of manifests in the expression of our behavior. Our values come from a combination of these aspects and they trigger how we live our lives and what experiences we encounter.

The Foursquare Opportunities for our individual growth and expansion of the four aspects of beings involve the development of our bodies, our belief systems, our intellectual capabilities and our spiritual resolve. We experience growth and expansion in our beings when we move toward optimum performance and move away from behaviors that undermine our development. By practicing prayer, meditation and service we come to a state of fulfillment in manifesting our Divine purpose in Divine order.

The Foursquare Possibilities for us to become the embodiment of our Divine purposes revolves around the awareness that we have options in our lives to grow and expand. We need to become aware that we can attain a state of perfect health. We can operate from wealth by living in truth based on facts and not opinions. We can live in prosperity by living in Divine love. We come to learn that being aware of the abundance of the omniverse comes from living in health, living from wealth and living in prosperity.

The Foursquare Probabilities are the result of us living consistently in health, wealth, prosperity and abundance. These probabilities are an inner knowingness that what we create is a result of what we accept as true and what we allow to be present in our lives. It is an ongoing state of Divine alignment where we operate in the flow of complete manifestation of our Divine purpose in Divine order.

The Foursquare Essentials of living in joy, peace, understanding and love come from consistently living in the allowance of health, wealth, prosperity and abundance. It is declaring that "I am THAT (health, wealth, prosperity and abundance), I am" and not declaring "I am sick, poor, ineffective and only have access to limited resources." It is co-creating your reality each and every day by living in Oneness with the Divine.

The Foursquare Aspects of Living:

Physical - Every day my body seeks its own level of physical health. I support and encourage this by eating healthy foods, exercising to maintain balance and order and resting to provide the reduction of stress.

Emotional - Every day my feelings move toward emotional wealth. I discharge any and all erroneous beliefs that don't serve my greater purpose of sharing love with all in Divine order.

Mental - Every day the thoughts in my mind move toward prosperity in ideas, implementation of ideas and clear and distinct pictures of the ideas that contribute to my growth and expansion into living my Divine purpose.

Spiritual - Every day the blessings of the Divine make me more aware of my spiritual abundance. Through the responsible choices of my free will, Divine grace and unconditional love I make steps to get out of my own way to actualize and manifest whom and what I was created to be.

The Foursquare Opportunities:

Prayer - Each and every day I ask the Divine through prayer to provide a clear path for all to health, wealth, prosperity and abundance. Through extending my thoughts, feelings, actions and deeds toward others I daily remain in a state of ongoing blessings.

Meditation - Each and every day I meditate to listen to the still small voice of the Divine guiding and directing me toward the fulfillment of my Divine purpose in Divine order. Through minimizing my thoughts, emotions, actions and deeds I daily enter a state where I can remove the veil of illusion that fosters separation from the Divine.

Service - Each and every day I serve others by giving forth my talents, skills and abilities toward the growth and expansion of all. Through focusing my thoughts, emotions, actions and deeds toward the betterment of everyone I share Divine love into the world and awaken all to the Oneness of the Divine.

Fulfillment - Each and every day I educate myself more and more how to fulfill my Divine purpose in a perfect manner that stimulates and inspires me toward complete fulfillment. Through inputting the thoughts, feelings, actions and deeds of others into my plan of manifestation I benefit from the lessons learned as a result of their interactions.

The Foursquare Possibilities:

The Path to Health – I daily allow the sensing of my surroundings to derive a meaning and passion about fulfilling my Divine purpose in Divine order by making the time each and every day to commune with my Higher SELF.

The Path to Wealth – I daily allow my feelings to not react by observing my environment and discerning my evaluations based on the facts and not the opinions of others.

The Path to Prosperity – I daily allow my thoughts to recognize that the power of love is from the Higher SELF within me and completely trust the guidance that it imparts.

The Path to Abundance – I know that everything in the omniverse is at my disposal to fulfill my Divine purpose in Divine order.

The Foursquare Probabilities:

The Fulfillment of Health – I direct my observation from sensing my environment to allow me to discipline myself in communing daily with the Divine. As a result, the Divine unfolds more and more into my world creating joy, understanding and peace.

The Fulfillment of Wealth – I direct my feelings to allow that when I live the truth that I experience from observing the facts and not relying on others' opinions, I align myself with Divine order.

The Fulfillment of Prosperity – I direct my thoughts towards the fact that when I express and share Divine love it blesses me with the awareness and guidance to manifest experiences that benefit all.

The Fulfillment of Abundance – I know that when I move toward fulfilling my Divine purpose in Divine order my Higher SELF reveals more and more opportunities that were always there but were beyond my perceived limited perspective.

The Foursquare Essentials:

I Am Health - Every day I ingest the necessary chemical nutrients to sustain the healthy balance of my cells' ingestion, digestion and excretion. I optimize my physical body by exercising, meditating and getting the proper amount of sleep every day. I remind myself everyday that my health comes from my source, the Divine, and not from anyone or anything else. I express complete and perfect physical health every day by praying for guidance and well-being.

I Am Wealth - Every day I allow only the positive feelings of love to sustain my emotional center's realization, acceptance and allowance of ongoing wealth. I optimize my inner heart by relaxing, listening to the Divine within and discharging erroneous beliefs each and every day. I remind myself everyday that my wealth comes from my source, the Divine, and not from anyone or anything else. I express complete and perfect emotional wealth every day by meditating and listening for guidance from the Divine.

I Am Prosperity – Every day I use my mind to observe, evaluate and discern events, circumstances, situations, occurrences and the behaviors of people for the experiences only, without judging those who have committed any aberrant behaviors. I optimize my mental experiences by understanding that my thoughts are electro-chemically based copies of reality colored by my emotional beliefs and in reality I am prosperous in everything I do. I remind myself everyday that my prosperity comes from my source, the Divine, and not from anyone or anything else. I express complete and perfect mental prosperity every day by serving others in helping them to balance their physical, emotional, mental and spiritual aspects of their being.

I Am Abundance – Every day I feel the presence of the Spirit of God within to sustain my allowance of Divine order and to manifest my Divine purpose perfectly. I optimize my spiritual awareness and experience by making the time each and every day to meditate on the presence of the Divine within. I remind myself everyday that my recognition, acceptance and allowance of abundance come from my source, the Divine, and not from anyone or anything else. I express complete and perfect spiritual abundance every day by allowing the fulfillment of my Divine purpose in Divine order.

I am health. I am wealth. I am prosperity. I am abundance. I am peace. I am joy. I am complete understanding. I am the fulfillment of my Divine purpose in Divine order. I am THAT, I am.

May God bless all of you on your path to the awareness of our Oneness in spirit. You are a child of the Most High God and by grace we are all blessed with unconditional love.

My Daily Prayer: 12 Steps to Freedom

Following is the revelation of my daily prayer entitled “12 Steps to Freedom.” By affirming this prayer, setting your intention to behave according to these steps and meditating to receive inspiration and guidance, we can progress toward a deeper understanding of our individual purpose in life.

1. I am humbled by the presence of God in my life, the magnificence of creation and my ability to co-create in this vast universe.

2. I am never separated from the Divine. Any appearance of separation is an illusion of a perceived dualistic reality. All of creation is an extension of God.

3. I daily express my love to the Divine for creating me, my family, my friends and the entire universe in which I move and create.

4. Since all of what has been expressed by humankind is a part of me, I accept responsibility for being human and apologize to God for all reactions of fear and for an attitude of acceptance of separation from the divine.

5. I daily release all judgments of others and their actions realizing that they are as much a part of me as I am a part of them. I formulate my opinions based on facts and the simplest explanations of those facts.

6. I daily appreciate all people, places and things in my life. I appreciate and respect my body, my mind and my connection to the Divine.

7. I daily seek forgiveness for being distracted from the fact that I am a child of the Most High God and that through me, love, creativity and progress are expressed into all of life.

8. I daily release fear and reacting to situations with an ongoing perception and awareness of the whole picture. I embrace faith in my ability to pro-act with expressions of love, kindness and peace.

9. I am happy where I am right now because I choose to live in the present. I learn from the past, embrace the present and move peacefully into my future.

10. I daily give thanks for the blessing of life that God has bestowed on me. I live and breathe in an ongoing state of gratitude for my health, wealth, prosperity and abundance.

11. I daily seek a state of peace, because this is a state where all of my needs have been met, all of my wants are understood, all of my desires are completely clear and all of my expectations have been realized.

12. I make time everyday to relax, go within and listen to the still small voice of God guiding and directing me to the joy, peace, beauty and fulfillment I seek.

A Foursquare Approach To Unfolding Your Divine Purpose In Divine Order

Journey To Oneness

Deep within you is a center of peace
The Divine Infinite Spirit is there
From this center came all of creation
From a single point of Divine projection

Everything was created
We sense some of this creation
Most of it we don't sense at all
It is there and we exist within it

You were created in love
You received the breath of life and became a living being
You are connected with everything that exists
And everything that exists is connected with you

You have been given the gifts of free will, grace and love
Everything you need to unfold your Divine purpose in Divine order
Your entire life is the venue in which the play of life takes place
It is your stage, your production and your vision that makes it happen

Discharge erroneous beliefs of lack and limitation
This is an abundant omniverse designed for you to grow and expand
Infuse your beliefs with the approval of the presence of the Most High
If what you do contributes to Divine wholeness then express it completely

If what you do takes away anything from another then educate yourself,
Edify yourself; work at being the best you can be
Unfold your Divine purpose in Divine order by listening to the still small voice of God
Do what the Divine instructs you to do to become completely fulfilled

Stop looking outside of yourself for the answers
Look within and experience the expanse of the omniverse
It is outside of you AND inside of you
Everything that ever was, is and will be is there...deep within

Align yourself with the presence of the Divine
Go to the Divine Source to access the presence
The knowledge, the power and the creativity that is here for you
To co-create the life that you divinely desire

Live in health, wealth, prosperity and abundance
It is your divine right, it is your destiny

A Foursquare Approach To Unfolding Your Divine Purpose In Divine Order

Reject anything that anyone says about who you are
You are a child of the Most High God

Utilize the gifts you have been freely given to create the life of your dreams
Be diligent, be focused, and be aware
Let go of any and all distractions from becoming whom and what you were created to be
It is up to you to allow, not resist

Give your energy to that which brings you into complete fulfillment of your purpose
You can do it. God has made sure of it
Open your eyes to the truth and serve humankind with your talents, skills and abilities
That is your gift to them and your gift from God is the fulfillment of your Divine purpose

Be peaceful, be joyous, be understanding
Where you are now someone else will be someday
How you treat them is how you will grow into Divine love
They are a part of you as much as you are a part of them

When you love your neighbor you love God
When despise your neighbor you are reacting to the part of them that doesn't know God
Send them love and peace by understanding where they are
Help them to become the best that they can be and you will become the best you can be.

We are all connected with everything in this vast omniverse
We affect it as it affects us
Broadcast as much love as you possibly can
And reap the harvest of peace

Always remember that the Divine is just a breath away
Giving you everything you need to become what you were created to be
Nurture that Divine seed within
And live a blessed and loving life.
